Featured General Council Speaker

Francis K. Achampong

Penn State Mont Alto Chancellor

Dr. Francis Achampong is chancellor at Penn State Mont Alto, where he also heads up the LaunchBox program. He started his career in education as a professor of business law at Howard University and later moved into administration. He joined Mont Alto in 2002 as its chief academic officer, and after a three-year stint as chancellor at Penn State Fayette, returned as the Franklin County campus' chancellor in 2013

Ad-Hoc Session Information

Throughout the previous year, requests for more social time had been increasing. We as an administration are excited for you all to get to know one another and make impactful connections. That is why, the administration has decided on facilitating a networking event this first council. Directed by your Campus Chair and Chief of Staff, this events goal is to foster new and important relationships between your perspective commonwealth campuses in order to establish early connections to cultivate an organizational culture of unity, respect and excellence to have more successful conversations in our goals for the commonwealth.
